

Kiwanis Club of North Modesto

June 8, 2017

OPENING REMARKS

President Lori Rosman opened the meeting at 7:03 a.m. but there were still a few late-arrival fines. Gary Goodman led us in the national anthem; Bill Schwarz led the pledge and Larry Hughes offered the prayer.

GUESTS/INTERCLUB

One guest today – Lori's husband, Jon. Fifty members attended, including several we don't see very often.

ANNOUNCEMENTS/CORRESPONDENCE

Board meeting Wednesday: The board gave away $8,250. Haven - $1,250; Community Hospice $1,500; Rosie's Journey of Hope - $1,500; Boys & Girls Clubs - $2,500 and Sierra Vista $2,000.

Chicken A Go Go: Loren Suelzle urged people to turn in their ticket money. Next week, the public shaming begins. Also, next week he'll have tickets for the CASA concert on June 24.

Health updates: Howard Sweet had back surgery yesterday but is expected to go home soon and be up and around in a couple of weeks.

Bart Bartoni broke a hip and shoulder in a fall. Lisa Lodi said she was driving when Bart asked her to stop and look at a Cadillac that he might want to buy. That's when he took the tumble. He has been in the hospital but she hopes he'll be moved today for rehab at the new HealthSouth rehab facility on Coffee Road.

It was nice to have Bob Braden with us this morning.

BIRTHDAYS

Jennifer Mullen put $20 in the bucket to not share her age; she spent her birthday at a car show (of course!) George Bairey is the same age as the name of a former lumber business—84. Bill Michael reached 80. Bill's birthday was yesterday but we regaled him in song so that Jon Rosman could hear the very special Kiwanis version of Happy Birthday.

Anniversaries will be recognized later, after the car show.

HAPPY/SAD BUCKS

Kiwanis Club of North Modesto

Lori heard Brent give a great interview about the car show, except for one thing. He credited “all the hard-working men” of Kiwanis with making it happen. Brent paid a $5 and gave an apologetic hug to all the women at the meeting!

Bob Dunbar was $5 happy to attend Wednesday evening’s event recognizing John Sanders as a Legend of the Cruise. Allan Ramsay also was there and posted a video on You Tube, which you can find here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xsgOtAuKaWs>. (If you need help, go to You Tube and then search Graffiti Walk of Fame. Trish Christensen also posted pix on her Facebook page.)

Kevin Scott was happy about a vacation on the East Coast.

Jeremiah Williams attended the funeral service for Frank Vierra, who advised Key Clubs for about 25 years. Although Frank has very little family, about 300 people attended his celebration of life. We observed a moment of silence.

PROGRAM – all car show

Charlie Christensen re the parade – information for those working along the route:

Those on the late shift need to stay until the trash is picked up and the police reopen the street. Once the crowd disperses, pull out the garbage bag and tie the top. If the garbage can gets filled during the parade, there are extra bags in the bottom. When the garbage crew arrives, one crew will grab the tied off garbage bags and the other the cans. (We have 94 of them!)

Early shift: Once you arrive, look for the street markings. X = the place to put the barricade, --= a place where caution tape will go and 0= the place for the intersection monitor to stand/sit. You want to let people out of the businesses but urge them to find the nearest street to exit. During the parade: If a car is overheating or has another problem, the driver can pull off the street and can pull back on if his/her problem is resolved.

Everyone: Intersection monitors will want to bring a chair and probably an ice chest, although they’ll be offered bottled water every so often.

Ray Sanders said the police have been fantastic to work with. If a volunteer has a problem with a spectator or someone, don’t get into it with the person. Simply wave over one of the police officers and ask them to resolve it.

Brent re the parade: There will be two special cars (among the many special cars): Dennis Wallace’s car has been restored/decorated in his memory and will be driven by Mercedes and Dave Wallace. Here’s what it looks like now:

Also, Faith Grainger, who made the hot rod movie “Deuce of Spades,” will be bringing her vehicle (roadster) and will be in the parade and at the show.

Show & other items

Brent thanked all of the “women and men” for their stellar job. He asked everyone to stay after the meeting for a brief presentation.

Bob Riedel needs more help at the golf course: If you can help Friday to do the layout, be at the clubhouse by 8 a.m. Friday. If you can help park/direct show cars (direct them) on the days of the show, be at the clubhouse at 6 a.m. (Remember, there are people out there making coffee for us!)

Marci Boucher needs a little more help at the Beer Garden; happy, outgoing folks preferred. She needs one Kiwanis member to work as a cashier Sunday afternoon and to help clean up.

Larry Hughes said there were 1,009 vehicles registered as of this morning, 53 ahead of this time last year. It seems likely we’ll hit the 1,300 goal.

Judy Herrero said the Facebook page is drawing lots of attention. If you post a picture or comment and put a tag to our club page, be sure to use the words “North Modesto Kiwanis” (no club) and look for the link that shows the club Kiwanis logo. Several of us linked to North Modesto Kiwanis Club which isn’t really a Facebook page, but Facebook created such a place and made its location Bob Dunbar’s house. We’re trying to get that page removed from Facebook.

John Sanders reminded us that one of the reasons our show is popular is that we are good hosts. He asked everyone to thank and otherwise be nice to all the car owners and guests.

Rich Humble said Image Imprints is hosting a gathering tonight at the MoBand Concert and Kiwanis members are invited to be their guests for food & drink. Look for a roped-off area in the park right across from 124 Sycamore.

Lori thanked everyone in advance for all the hard work we will put in this weekend.

MARBLE/LUNCH MONEY

Judy Herrero had the right number but pulled a white marble. Skipper Friecke won the lunch money (again).

SPECIAL SURPRISE

At the end of the meeting, we went outside for Lori's special presentation: This weekend she'll be driving a golf cart labeled with the President sign.
