

Kiwanis Club of North Modesto

Feb. 2, 2017

OPENING REMARKS

President Lori Rosman opened the meeting at 7:01 a.m.

Gary Goodman led us in a rousing rendition of the National Anthem. Don Vieira started the pledge and Marty Villa offered the prayer.

Lori was sharp on the fines this morning, catching a couple of late arrivers and at least one person not wearing a badge or pin. This may be the new normal!

GUESTS/INTERCLUB

Two upcoming InterClubs: Ken Darby is leading a contingent to Los Banos next Tuesday, Feb. 7, for their noon meeting. They will be meeting at Century Center, east of the bank, at 10:30 a.m. to carpool. Contact Ken if interested.

Troy Wright has organized an InterClub in Sonora for next Friday, Feb. 10, for their 7 a.m. meeting. Several folks will be going on to Dodge Ridge to ski and enjoy a gourmet lunch provided by Troy.

Two guests today: Jordan Verma, a guest of Aaron Kellums, and Gabi Guerrini, a guest of Adrian Crane.

Gabi gave a brief presentation on the Modesto Marathon, coming up on Sunday, March 19. She is the director of volunteers for the event and said up to 700 volunteers are needed, especially for course monitors. The hours depend on where on the course you are stationed. The Modesto Marathon raises money for Teens Run Modesto, a program that helps teens identify a goal (running a full or half marathon) and then fulfilling the steps to achieve it. Gabi left some information but you can also sign up via the website, www.modestomarathon.com

ANNOUNCEMENTS/CORRESPONDENCE

Loren Suelzle said that Gary Zimmerman fell and is hospitalized in Sacramento with a neck injury. Lori urged members to reach out to Jackie. (Judy Herrero will bring a card next week for folks to sign.)

Gary Goodman reported that Cliff Oilar is on his way home after heart procedures.

Roger Suelzle was passing the sign-up clipboard for the Poppy Hills golf outing on April 14 and 15. The deadline to sign up will be March 15 so there is still lots of time.

Loren is waiting for two people to turn in their ticket money and then we'll have a total amount raised at Breakfast With Santa.

Marty Villa said we'll be painting five Peace Paths at elementary school playgrounds this coming Saturday, Feb. 4, starting at 8:30 a.m. The schools are Wilson, El Vista (two paths), Garrison and Burbank. More help is needed. Contact Marty if you can assist. If you can't help all day, that's fine too. Call and catch up with them at the next campus. The Peace Paths have proven popular and successful in giving kids a way to resolve conflicts.

Bill Michael reported that the Central Catholic Key Club, with 90 members, has a busy line-up of activities, including helping at the Modesto Marathon. He praised the adviser/counselor at Central for her good work.

Roger said the board approved passing the hat – or in our case a bucket – to boost the NMK contribution to the soccer field that will be built in Hughson in memory of Dennis Wallace, our long-time member and deputy sheriff who was killed in the line of duty. The club contributed $500 earlier. The bucket went around this morning and Roger reported at the end that $267 was collected.

Loren said that he met with Dave Wallace and plans are in the works to restore Dennis' Dodge Stealth so that Mercedes can drive it at the soccer field opening and other special occasions.

Roger explained the new date and format for the CASA golf tourney. It will be June 22 at Del Rio, followed by the Zasu Pitts Orchestra concert on June 24. The field of golfers will be limited to 40, with entry costing $1,000. The hope is that the combined events raise more money but require less work.

BIRTHDAYS/ANNIVERSARIES

No cookies or cupcakes today.

HAPPY/SAD BUCKS

Brent won a big award last Saturday and he paid for it big time this morning. Burnside Body Shop received the Small Business of the Year honor at the Modesto Chamber of Commerce dinner. Brent said he was very humbled. (We all have a sense of how much he and the business do for our community.) Lori and others shamed Brent into one of the biggest fines in recent years -- $100. He didn't have to pay extra for the fact that he has a new SUV and trailer.

Lori put in $2 because her phone rang during last week's meeting. She scolded her daughter for calling her at that time, and the phone was off today.

Loren was $5 happy for Brent.

Kiwanis Club of North Modesto

Tom Swafford was $2 happy for Brent, but observed that for as many times as he has had vehicles at Burnside Body Shop he has only seen Brent there once.

Brent commented that he, like the farmers, appreciates the rain as it is good for business.

Doug Hardie was sad that there was no cupcake for Brent.

Steve Collins still has his 50-year cookie and wondered whether he should eat it or frame it because it is so attractive.

PROGRAM

No formal program today, but Marty Villa showed off our new projector (purchased by the club) and we were treated to photos from the December Christmas basket project throughout the meeting. The projector will be stored at The Clarion in a lockable cabinet and available for those giving programs, etc. Several people have keys.

MARBLES/LUNCH

Roger Suelzle had the lucky number but pulled a white marble out of the bag. Steve Collins won the $6 in lunch money.
