Bucks

Lisa Lodi was happy to be with us this morning. She also has a solo trip coming up to Arizona, where she will meet with lots of family.

John Erro has an amazing trip coming up to Ireland and mainland Europe. We've asked him to give a program when he returns.

Lori Rosman is thankful that her 9-year-old granddaughter helped at the stuffing party and wanted to stay until the work was done.

Bob Riedel was thankful that new members Brian Sanders and John Erro and his wife were so involved in the stuffing party.

Bob Dunbar is happy to report that his 10-year-old grandson, who is on the autism spectrum, made huge advancements in his reading and math testing this year.

Gary Goodman is thankful for the hospitality of Randy and Denise Cook. (As we all are!)

Roger Suelzle is happy and proud that his 13-year-old grandson ran a mile in 5:15, placing third in a multi-school track meet.

Larry Hughes is proud that his grandson completed his first flight in an F-15 and “only puked six times.”

American Graffiti led by Brent

We've collected $26,000 in sponsorships so far.

1,156 cars registered in advance; 200 to 250 more expected to register Friday at the Clarion.

Cars & Coffee has 163 members registered so far for Sunday and many tend to sign up at the last meeting.

Brent thanked Robert Husman for taking caring of the permits for the beer garden.

There were so many Graffiti details discussed that I couldn't get them all down.

Several key points:

1. Help is still needed in several areas. Ray Sanders needs a few more monitors for the parade route and some subs to be available in case of last-minute cancellations. He also needs some volunteers for the gates at the show, including people willing to use the Square app on their phones to take credit cards. (Jim Graham will set you up).
2. Odette Fattal needs more help at the beer garden.
3. Gary Wasmund is hoping for a Kiwanis member or two to help at the Mancini entrance (used by members and vendors).
4. Kiwanis members and their families are welcome to use the “black tie” restrooms that are near the stage. The county requires these for the food vendors.
5. Lori passed around the membership list for a final update. It was sent out earlier tonight so that folks would have access to cell phone list for Graffiti weekend.

Randy Cook on socials: John and Mary Ann Sanders have again invited the club to their Twain Harte cabin for the Wine in the Pines event tied with the community event there. Randy circulated the sign-up folder again.

Kiwanis Club of North Modesto

He is working on organizing a bowling tournament with/against Sunrise Rotary. We have an ace in Bill Heyden.

BIRTHDAYS/ANNIVERSARIES:

Birthdays: George Bairey and Jennifer Mullen each had a birthday TODAY so we got to sing twice. George is 86; Jennifer isn't saying.

Wedding Anniversaries: Dirk and Jan Paintedman are celebrating #15 by working at a car show. Kerry and Nancy Horner also had an anniversary this past week.

Service Anniversaries: Lots of them: Dirk, 18 years; Sabine Saso, Anthony Rivera and Joseph Cosgrove all one year; not present this morning, but marking membership anniversaries: Jeff Goudy, Wayne Henry and Eric Angelo.

MARBLE & LUNCH MONEY

Anthony Rivera had the right ticket but with only three marbles in the bag, he pulled a white one. Someone has to win shortly.

Not sure who won the lunch money.
