

Kiwanis Club of North Modesto

May 30 — Guess what we talked about today? The American Graffiti Festival & Car Show, of course. Aaron Kellums explained how we're using EventBrite to sell spectator tickets. We'll also continue to take debit and credit cards at all gates. All members are asked to help throughout the weekend. Start with Ray Sanders.

President Adrian Crane presiding

Song: Gary Goodman led us in the National Anthem

Pledge: Hans Husman

Prayer: Marty Villa

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Adrian: Offered thanks 1. to Melody, who serves us each morning. (Leaving a tip is always nice.)
2. To Robert Husman who does so many things for the club and to help Adrian.

DCM will be this Saturday in at the Modesto home of a Merced club officer. Once Lori assumes her position as Lt. Gov. she wants us to be more supportive of DCMs held in Modesto. That seems reasonable.

Lori is updating the membership list addresses, phone numbers, emails, etc. Let her know if something has changed in the last couple of years.

There will be leadership training for club officers and future officers on July 27, ending in time for folks to get to the Wine in the Pines in Twain Harte.

American Graffiti:

Aaron Kellums said our EventBrite link is up and running so that spectators can purchase their festival/show tickets ahead of time. The basic cost is still $10, with a $1.26 convenience charge that will be paid by the ticket purchaser and goes to EventBrite. Our income is the same. You can check it out on the Graffiti website or our Facebook page under the events listings for June 8 and 9.

He demonstrated how easy it will be for people to order tickets this way. If the spectator doesn't make it to the show, we get the $$$ anyway. Each gate will have a Kiwanis member who can take credit or debit cards and who can scan the EventBrite ticket, either on paper or on the spectator's smart phone. Aaron will email instructions. Jim Graham will provide help on using Square to take cards.

Larry Hughes: Car count is 1,040 as of this morning, 218 ahead of the same time last year.

Judy: Even if you have liked the American Graffiti Facebook page in the past, please Comment on, Like and/or share the recent posts thanking sponsors and other posts coming up that will promote the show and the entertainment.

Kiwanis Club of North Modesto

Ray Sanders still needs people to sign up to work the gates on Saturday and Sunday and please let him know if you have a smart phone/tablet and can use it to take credit cards.

Randy Cook said our next social is a biggie – the Graffiti stuffing party on Wednesday, June 5, starting about 5 p.m. Bring an appetizer and a beverage of choice. Lots of work to do.

Also from Randy: John and Mary Ann Sanders have again invited the club to their Twain Harte cabin for the Wine in the Pines event tied with the community event there. Randy started circulating the sign-up folder. See more info in the list below.

BIRTHDAYS/ANNIVERSARIES:

Birthdays: Steve Ashman's birthday is today but since he wasn't with us, we did not (have to or get to) sing our version of Happy Birthday.

Rich Reimche celebrated yesterday with dinner at Fuzio's. He's either 42 or 76, take your pick.

Randy Cook celebrated #61 on Monday.

Wedding Anniversaries: Larry and Patti Hughes celebrated #54 yesterday with an exciting day that included a car show breakfast meeting and putting together car show packets.

Lori and Jon Rosman celebrated #5. She pointed out that if you want to reduce your wedding anniversary fine amount, you can get a divorce and start over.

Service Anniversary: Brent Burnside has been with the club for 11 years – thanks to Charlie Christensen – and look at all that he has accomplished.

MARBLE & LUNCH MONEY

Bob Harper collected his lunch money from last week.

John Sanders had the right ticket and won table stakes but pulled a white marble from the almost empty bag.

Bob Riedel won the lunch money.
